

About me

I am a mother to my three year old Charli Rose. I am finishing up my degree in biotechnology and applying to a masters program in Physician Assisting. I have a lot of experience working as a medical assistant in pediatrics, and enjoy working in the medical field. When I am not in school or working, I am writing music and being a mom.